

READ OR ELSE!

Before the exam:

Revise! Look at the key terms document and highlight the words that are relevant for the 4 topics you have studied. These are:-

Matters of Life (Medical Ethics)

Drug Abuse

Crime and Punishment

World Poverty

Past papers and mark schemes are online (google "aqa gcse religious studies b past papers", then click on the first website, click on past papers and choose any year) and on the RE pages of the college website.

During the exam:

Only answer the 4 topics you have studied!

When answering a question about "Religious believers...", say which religion you are writing about, for instance, "Many Christians believe..."

Key Christian Teachings:

All of the following are Christian teachings from the Bible:-

The sanctity of life (which means that God made everyone, so life is important)

You must not kill

You must not steal

The parable of the good Samaritan teaches that we must help anyone who needs it

Love thy neighbour (help everyone who needs it)
