

English Language revision

When writing to persuade, use...

A → Alliteration

F → Fact

O → Opinion

R → Repetition

R → Rhetorical question

E → Emotive language

E → Exaggeration

S → Strong ending/ beginning

T → Three

Use AFORREEST to identify techniques used by writers to achieve their purpose in the reading section.

When reading texts, think about...

P

Purpose

What is the writer's main aim? To persuade? Argue? Inform? Communicate a message? Inspire an action?

A

Audience

Who is the target audience? How do you know? What are the clues?

F

Form

What sort of text is this? A letter? An article?

F

Features

What special language features are used for effect? Think AFORREEST! Are there any other language features such as similes or imagery?

Presentational features are extremely important!

S say

W what

Y you

S see and

W why!

D Grade

C Grade!

